

Good afternoon,

The Free Library of Northampton Township has an opening for a Part-Time Youth Services Librarian. FLNT is embarking on a Strategic Planning process and it's conceivable this position may require additional hours and provide additional benefits once the Plan is complete and implementation begins.

Schedule:

29 hours/week; including days, evenings, Saturdays and/or Sundays (in rotation);
On-site and off-site determined by programming and outreach needs;
Position available immediately;

Compensation:

$23 - $29/hour, DOQ, plus accrued vacation, sick and personal time, and holidays.

To Apply:

Please send a cover letter, resume, and at least 3 professional references to Wayne Lahr, wlahr@nhtwp.org.
We wish to begin the interview process as soon as possible.

This position requires:

PA State Police Criminal History Clearance, PA Child Abuse History Clearance, FBI Criminal History Clearance, and Mandated Reporter Training.

Northampton Township is a diverse community of almost 40,000 set amongst a mix of suburban landscape and bucolic farmland in Bucks County, PA. The library is the 3rd-busiest in the county and we have a very friendly and experienced staff.

Come and join our team! We'd love to have you!!

Wayne R. Lahr, Director

Free Library of Northampton Township
25 Upper Holland Rd
Richboro, PA 18954
215.357.3050, ext. 110

<https://www.northamptontownshiplibrary.org/>

 The Free Library of Northampton Township is an Equal Opportunity Employer.*